Adding Books to Your Home

Parents as Teachers

Parent Guide

1. Is this book age-appropriate?

2. What will my child learn from this book?

3. Will my child like the subject?

4. Does the book look good?

5. How will we use this book?

6. Recognize?

7. Is it to an interest she already has?

8. Do I explain?

9. Is this something my child will pick up?

10. Asking questions aloud?

11. Is it something she has been reading about?

12. Someone she can relate to?

13. Is the story about something of interest?

14. Is it similar to books she enjoys?

15. Will our family enjoy it?

Is it too easy?

Does it correspond with our values if it teaches a life lesson?

Choose books to buy for your child is not always easy and because you are spending money on them, you don’t want them to just sit on the shelf.

Parent Handbook

© 2015 Parents as Teachers National Center for Parent/Youth Interaction

Foundational Curriculm

© 2015 Parents as Teachers National Center for Parent/Youth Interaction