Selecting a book is good for your baby's emotional development tool. Reading together is a form of shared attention that helps build secure attachment.

Pick a book from this center. Tell why you think your child would like it. Why?

Do they have elements from this list?

- Picture your child's favorite book(s)
- Take time to think about your child.
- Reflect

- Learn the patterns of language
- Make noises with your child
- Over time, you'll sing and
- Recognize the sounds that are
- Choose connections for
- Your child's brain
- Language: This also happens
- Rhythm and rhyme
- Sensory components: Like pages that
- Touch and feel
- Colorful or squeak
- Repetition of words or phrases
- Simple pictures
- Attractive colors
- Examine these books for

This center includes a variety of books for young children from birth to age 3.

Language Experience Center: A look at Books

Parents as Teachers